
OMER SALIH

kirkuk center
ahm1296k@gmail | 07813020094

Highly skilled and dedicated Child protection with a superior work ethic and commitment to healthy child development. Adept at explaining complicated legal and medical child care standards to a variety of audiences. Able to handle difficult interpersonal situations with professionalism and sensitivity.

Professional Experience

Free work - Electric - maintenance - 2015

Degman company -Forman (Electric)- 2016

Coding For Kids - valunteer- programmer- 2018

Education

U O Technology
laser and Optoelectronic Eng

The Bridge community_ Trainer

- 3 months of training on the communications , electric , social marketing , and IOT

Community mobilizer youth activity IRD(International Relief & Develop)

- Empower the already established committees and act as focal point for one committee.
- Conduct weekly meetings, receive reports, communicate their reports to the right person inside and outside the camps
- Build the capacity of committee members,conduct election and strengthen the social activities of the IDPs.
- Will be responsible for coordination with the respected trainers and plan for trainings, preparing the training material, attendance sheet, agenda and follow up with the CR to attend the training...etc.
- Responsible for referring the cases to the required actors per the case needs and following up the cases.
- Writing the training report.
- Focus on the needs of different vulnerable groups in the camps including elderly people.

Key Skills

- Responsible for providing support to officers on their daily activities and monitoring the recreational activities conducted by the partners in Child.
- Friendly Spaces and to supervise the daily work conducted by volunteers conducting awareness raising sessions.
- The work of a community committee in the intervention areas contributes to identifying cases of abuse of children as well as children affected by the war.
- Special training in fatherhood skills explains how to deal with children and ways to communicate with them by identifying parents and prospective couples to improve their parental performance.
- Undertake site and field visits to ensure child protection recreational activities are implemented according to minimum standards.
- Development of an Early Identification and Referral System
- Ensure that all activities are accurately documented and filed in the database.
- Make a weekly report that includes training parents, events and topics.

Interests

- programme ●●●●○
- python ●●●○○
- wep Design ●●●●○
- Graphic Designer ●●●○○
- Solid work ●●○○○
- Electric ●●●●○
- Accounting ●●●●●
- MTCNA ●●●●●
- CCNA ●●●○○

References

Available on request